From 1,249 EUR per person

Overall

July 27th 1953 was the day the Korean War armistice was signed. This occasion is celebrated in North Korea as 'Victory Day' and is a major annual holiday. This year will mark the 66th anniversary and we will make sure that you're in Pyongyang on the day to join in the celebrations with the locals picnicking in Moran Park, and attending whatever dances or events are planned on this day.

Aside from joining in the celebrations with the locals, we won't be missing out on seeing the main sites of the capital city, Pyongyang. This includes the Victorious Fatherland Liberation War Museum, the Juche Tower, the Party Foundation Monument, and Kim Il Sung Square. Plus much more!

This comprehensive group tour to North Korea will also get you down to the DMZ (the North-South Korea border), and the little-explored town of Nampo on the West Coast. Here you will stay in the famous hot spa resort and enjoy BBQ petrol clams! (Yes, it's exactly what it sounds like - a must-try!)

Highlights

- Victory Day celebrations on July 27th, the 67th anniversary of the Korean War Armistice
- Experience heavy industry of Nampo and the healing waters of Dragon River Hot Spa
- Panmunjom Truce Village and the DMZ in historic Kaesong, capital of the medieval Koryo Dynasty
