(Talk to us about potential flights.)

Incredible India – Textile Trail Tour

INCLUDED IN TOUR COST

All accommodation (19 nights)

All of the accommodation on this tour offers luxury, history, atmosphere and immersion in a very special and fascinating culture. You will experience wonderful hospitality, beautiful settings and great comfort. Some of the accommodation choices are in fairly remote areas and you may experience intermittent power outages for short periods of time. Where possible we have tried to book accommodation with air-conditioning. Where it is not possible, the accommodation is usually well designed for the climate.

Breakfasts, selected lunch & dinner

Full Breakfast each day (19), Lunches and dinners where specified on the itinerary. Each day we will stop for breaks for lunch and comfort when we are en-route.

Shows, demonstrations and workshops

Included in tour cost – as specified in Itinerary.

Transfers to/from airport in Delhi and Ahmedabad

Airport transfers will be included if within confines of the tour dates – transfers on arrival in Delhi and at the end of the tour to Ahmedabad International Airports.

Transport outside these times and dates can be arranged at a further cost, on request.

Tour Transport

Each day (unless otherwise specified) in a Deluxe Mini Coach with Air Con.

Guides

English-speaking guides provided during tours of cities and attractions, as per itinerary.

Entrance Fees

All pre-paid for all monuments, forts, museums and places of interest etc.

Taxes:

5% India Government (GST).

NOT INCLUDED

Airfares are NOT included.

We favour Singapore Airlines & their connections between Singapore and New Delhi and also Ahmedabad and Singapore. Be aware that VERY early arrival in Delhi may mean that you are unable to be checked in to your hotel room until 2.00 pm on the day of arrival.

Gratuities

It is traditional (but not mandatory) to leave an end of tour tip for the driver/guides and any guide or service staff who you wish to tip along the way. It is also expected that the concierge staff that handle your luggage to and from your rooms and the bus receive tips as we go. (We can do this as a group if you wish.) Please try to leave $50 - $100 in your budget for these contributions.

Items of a personal nature

These include laundry, phone calls, drinks, mini bar etc. any medication.

Video/camera fees

Some places charge for you to take video, or a camera inside (usually a very small amount).

Lunches, dinners and snacks / drinks

Lunches and dinners not specified as included. Additional snacks between meals, and drinks and alcohol. PLEASE NOTE – Gujarat is a DRY State.

Early check-in or late check-out / non-tour date airport transfers

Additional charges for early check-in or late check-out at all hotels, and any extra costs for transfers outside of tour dates.

Travel Insurance - IMPORTANT

Your booking with us is dependent on proof of Individual Travel Insurance. India does have excellent medical facilities BUT it is wise for you to have appropriate and adequate travel insurance to ensure that transfers and high standards of medical assistance can be accessed, should you need it.

TOUR ITINERARY

Day 1

ARRIVE DELHI

Upon your early morning arrival at Delhi Airport our team will be holding Uttam Travel signage in arrivals hall to meet you and transfer you to your Hotel for your welcome ceremony.

Optional: If interested, later in the afternoon we visit Girls Orphanage 'Arya Kanya Gurukul' or similar to interact, educate and play with children there.

Delhi, the capital of India, is a city that offers a glimpse of both ancient and modern day India. It is the third largest city in India and one of the fastest growing in Asia. This city is rich in culture, always changing with time but never hiding its splendid past. The various ancient ruins seen in the city are silent witnesses to its magnificent history. The city of Delhi is a blend of two different yet perfectly balanced parts, the Old and the New Delhi. With its intricate streets, elegant mosques, forts, monuments, and bazaars that sell a variety of goods, Old Delhi speaks volumes about its Mughal past. With its multi-ethnic, multi-cultural population, New Delhi is truly cosmopolitan.

After breakfast your Jaipur Heritage City Tour begins with a Rajasthan welcome ceremony of Indian Turbans and Stoles.

Enjoy a classic jeep ride the Amber Fortress, a must see of Jaipur! Built in 16th, the fortress offers magnificent hilltop views with an intricate Mirror Palace and a fine blend of Hindu-Rajasthan architecture.

We visit the Anokhi Museum, dedicated to the art of block printing, an inspiration to both textile specialists and the general public.

We will enjoy lunch (at own expense) at Stag Rooftop Restaurant.

As we return down from the Amber Fortress we will stop opposite the Water Palace 'Jal Mahal' located in the center of 'Man Sagar Lake' for a quick photo opp. We then arrive in the heart of Old City to visit the Jaipur City Palace and Museum.

This Palace is a paradise of royal heritage history as it houses rare galleries from British Raj and Rajput Era. We then take you for a Bazaar Walk and Tuk-Tuk Ride through Jaipur's most colourful bazaars.

We will also get to see Jaipur's most distinctive landmark – The Palace of Winds 'Hawa Mahal' – built in a unique pink-colored beehive design that is certainly hard to miss.

Day 6

BAGRU BLOCK PRINTING VILLAGE & PUSHKAR

After Breakfast, we depart for Bagru to learn the art of hand block printing and dyeing from traditional artisans. A textile expert will give you an introduction into the process of Indigo dyeing and block-printing. We then head to the master artisan's workshop where you will have a hands-on session dyeing and block printing, making your own masterpieces to take home.

As we walk around Bagru, we will see its block-printing shops, workshops and the enormous, brightly coloured fabrics as they hang on huge racks to dry in the sun.

Afterwards, we will drive on to the Holy town of Pushkar (150km) – one of the oldest cities of India – built around the sacred Pushkar Lake which is believed to have originated when the 'Lord Brahma', the creator of universe, accidentally dropped lotus on ground.

Optional: We begin with a Heritage Walk around sacred Pushkar Lake, surrounded by 52 bathing Ghats and hundreds of milky blue temples. Visit 2000 year-old Brahma Temple formed from a curse by Lord Brahma's consort 'Goddess Saraswati'.

Day 10

POSHINA

Your host Kr. Harendrapal Singh will personally accompany you on a walk through Poshina village. Visit a market bustling with activity where colourful women from the tribal hamlets and tribal men unload and sell their produce. You will observe craftsmen at work-forging swords, daggers, bows and arrows, potters making terra cotta horses and other figurines.

An excursion by jeep then offers fascinating glimpses in to rural Indian life. The most interesting being the terra cotta army of horses. We will visit the remote villages of the Adivasi and Garasia tribes who will also give you archery demonstrations.

Day 11

BAJANA

Today we drive to Patan (210km) visiting the iconic Sun Temple at Modhera on the way. Patan was an ancient Hindu capital and is home to the famous Double Ikat Patola Silk saris. Patola are considered the “Gem” amongst fine textiles for their quality, gorgeous colours, design and durability.

We then visit Queens Step wells – Rani Ki Vav – and continue to drive to Bajana (70km) and check in. Later in the afternoon, we will watch the traditional style of Mashru weaving. This fabric is made using silk cotton threads in a satin weave – with silk on the outer face of the piece and cotton worn close to the body. (Breakfast, dinner)

Day 12

BAJANA

Early in the morning, we will take a jeep safari into one of India’s largest wild- life sanctuaries spanning some 4955 sq. km located in the Little Rann of Kutch.

The sanctuary is the only home of the Asiatic Wild Ass or Ghudkhar (which is the last of India’s wild horse family) and one of the most endangered species in the world. The sanctuary is also a home for gazelle, blue bull, wolf, Indian foxes, jackals, jungle cat, black bucks, wild boar and hare.

Late in the afternoon we will visit a nearby village to see everyday village activities and watch Tangaliya Weaving – a 700 year-old indigenous craft native to this area. We will see the ladies demonstrate their skill and how they put knots into the weaving to give the raised dot effect to the fabric. (Breakfast, lunch, dinner)

Day 13

BHUJ

We drive to Bhuj (280km). One the way we will visit a number of tribal villages with many local textile artisans. Kutch is a major textile region where thousands of artisans make their livelihood from their art and design.

Visit Ajrakhpur Village to see Hand Block Printing with various natural dyes. Ajrak, is the name of a block printed cloth with deep crimson red and indigo blue background.

Next, the women-run NGO Shurjan, dedicated to Kutch women embroiderers that support the town. Later, a traditional Gujarati Lunch. Visit Khamir for traditional Hand-Woven Textiles using camel wool, Mashru Weaving that combines silk and cotton, and innovative weaving using Recycled Plastic Bags.

Accommodation

Day 14

BHUJ

Experience traditional Patola Weaving with weavers at Dharamshi Maheshwari. We then visit the Bandhani Workshop with the acclaimed Master Weaver Mohamad Ishaq. See the process how these fabrics are made.

Ikat is a meticulous technique of tying and dyeing the warp or weft, before weaving into the final form. Single Ikat is created by interweaving, and double ikat involves resist tye and dye.

Later a Heritage Tour of the elaborately decorated Aina Mahal Palace, Prag Mahal, the iconic Bell Tower overlooking the city followed by visit to Madame Hall's atelier.

Day 15

HODKA VILLAGE

This morning, we will visit Mr. AA Wazir, a heritage textile collector. Much of his collection are treasures for a future museum but some are for sale.

After this, we travel to Hodka in the Banni region some 65 kilometres north of Bhuj near the White Desert. The Banni region is semi desert and dry pastureland. Over the centuries different tribal groups in the area have developed their own unique embroidery styles.

On the way we visit a Mutwa community and see examples of their fine stitching. Mutwa Bharat is one of the most intricate and meticulous embroidery techniques, inlaid with tiny round mirrors and adorned with minuscule stitches.

Accommodation

Overnight: Resort Mahefeel E Rann Resort or similar

Address: Mahefeel e rann hodka, Bhuj, Gujarat 370510

Phone: 094275 13035

Day 16

HODKA VILLAGE

Today we visit nearby Hodka village for stitching styles and a village walk. We also visit Dhordo Village, famous for Mutwa embroidery art. Hopefully we will meet Sophie, a village woman and true stitching artist. She inspires girls to pursue perfect needlework.

Later, we depart for the White Desert. We arrive in time to walk in this spectacular area and enjoy the sunset. Return back to your hotel.

Dinner will be followed by music around a bonfire and under the stars, where we will be serenaded by musicians with unique Kutch music.

Day 17

HODKA VILLAGE then to Bhuj

We leave Hodka to return to the Bhuj area. On the way we visit Bhirandiare village for the art of Meghwal and their colourful traditional round homes built around a beautiful village square. We then visit the Kala Raksha cooperative. This has an excellent museum with heritage embroidered clothing carefully preserved, a great shop and we see women working on different embroidery and weaving projects.

Later we visit Tana Bana weaver Ramji Maheshwari. Tana means warp, and Bana means weft (the threads that make fabric).

Day 18

AHMEDABAD

Today we drive to Ahmedabad (330km) – a great textile city of western India. We will check into the hotel before for a few hours of relaxation before heading out in the evening.

After dinner, we take you on a Bazaar Walk in the Old City including historic Manek Chowk Bazaar. This Bazaar is a Bullion Market in daytime and Food Market by night with rows of traders dealing in silver jewellery to printed local fabrics.

Accommodation

Overnight: The Lemon Tree Premier, Ahmedabad.

Standard Room for 2 nights including breakfast and dinner on Day 19.

Day 19

AHMEDABAD

After breakfast we visit Gandhi Ashram. It is from here that Gandhi started his struggle for the Untouchables in 1917 and where he lived for 15 years. Today, they manufacture spinning wheels, handmade paper and other craft products. The unadorned rooms where Gandhi lived have been turned into a museum.

In the afternoon, we visit the Shreyas Folk Museum, which supports women who work in Gujarat handicrafts. Witness unique folk arts on display from many communities of Gujarat.

We will also go to Kalamkari Artisans workshop where you will make your own masterpiece on a silk cloth. Kalamkari is an ancient style of hand painting done on cotton or silk fabric with a tamarind pen, using natural dyes.

Tonight we will enjoy a farewell dinner together at the hotel.

Day 20
