

Taiwan

Taiwan is an Island of contrasts. The new and the old side by side, the modern and ancient seemingly at odds with each other but blended together to create a fascinating mix of cultures. The Taiwanese are a very welcoming people, proud of their land and its history. Few visitors to Taiwan are surprised by the obvious affluence and high level of development that this dynamic Asian isle has attained in a relatively short time. Even fewer people know that Taiwan is celebrated for its towering mountains. The island has numerous mountains over 3,000m. It is home to Northeast Asia's highest mountain, Jade Mountain, which is nearly 4,000m in height. Besides mountains, there are beautiful tropical coastlines, soaring forest, ancient temples and some of the best shopping to be had anywhere in the world!

Our Taiwan Discovery tour covers the full length of the island, taking in unmissable sights such as Yangmingshan National Park with its majestic mountains, hot springs, tall grasses, forests of bamboo and broad-leaved trees. The stunning Taroko Gorge will have your camera working overtime, with the sheer cliffs rising up from the river bed. We also visit Tainan, Taiwan's former capital with its historical relics and a chance to wander through the island's oldest streets.

Of course, no visit to Taiwan is complete without taking in the sights and sounds of the capital, Taipei. With its vast selection of museums, monuments and markets you will never get to see all of Taipei in one visit but we make sure that you will see the highlights of this ultra-modern capital. With a private car and English speaking guide this really is a 'hidden luxury' discovery tour.

History meets hyper-reality on this pulsing, picturesque island
